SOCIETY FAS A VIDAY & PORT

telling you that I'm terribly hurt and very much puzzled as to the reason why I wasn't asked to Mrs. Al's reception tast week." said one Wemen's Club member to enother as they sat sipping tea in the

You see, we've been excellent friends for years, and while we are not intimate, yet we pay visits on each other frequent ly; both are on the Children's Hospital Board, take French in the same class, and traveled in the same party through the Yellowstone last summer. If the reception had been a small affair I would not have given the matter a second thought, but it was so large. Everybody in town was

"No everybody in town wasn't invited. I was not." interrupted the second memsetting down her teacup. "And I. too, think it very odd, for Mrs. A. and I have been close friends for years. I am inclined to think that the mails must have miscarried in some way, for nothing can make me believe that Mrs. A. did not mean to invite me. There comes Mrs. B. Let's ask her if she was left out or bid-

The two were joined by a third member, who, when the question of the moment was put to her, acknowledged that she felt sorry for her slighted sisters, but that she had in all verity been invited, though she had been ill and unable to attend the

'See here, girls," said she, "what you tell me about your failure to receive cards makes me think of something that I saw on the street the day before Mrs. A.'s invitations came out. I had just left the and was walking up the boulevard toward Mrs. A.'s house-she is a neighbor of mine, you know-when two darkies approached me, carrying a large basket between them.

They stepped up to the corner mail box and proceeded to fill it with the contents of their basket-invitation cards, evidently, from the size and shape. I watched them, walking slowly, in the idle way that sometimes has, wondering to myself how they could possibly get all those cards into that one small mailbox. Sure and there still remained a large number of cards in the bottom of the basket.

"The darkies contemplated the overflow for a minute and then, at a word from one of them, they calmly tipped the remaining cards straight over into the sewer, which was just beneath the mail box. I was, of course, horrified, but as I did not know whose servants they were I could not interfere. But I made up my mind to mention the matter to the first woman in that neighborhood who gave a large entertainment.

"Now, Mrs. A. fits the circumstance perfectly, and what you both tell me about receiving no cards is also good evidence. I shall certainly take the first opportunity to inform Mrs. A of what I saw, and I rather think two darky servants may lose their places.'

I know one woman of social prominence in St. Louis who, whenever she fafts to receive a card to large entertainments Iven by her friends-those persons who he feels certain would naturally invite her-never hesitates, but either rings up tions the fact that her invitation did not arrive. She almost invariably receives a grateful reply, stating that her invitation was mailed with the others, but must have miscarried in some way. Of course, this method can only be adopted when one is positive that one is on the list. Unscrupulous persons might use this method hoped to gain entrance, but the hostess is by no means forced to invite such, as they are certain to be detected.

George Breckenridge Hodges surprise his friends in St. Louis last week by send ing them cards of his wedding, which took place in Chicago on Friday. The bride is known to some friends here. She was a Miss Belle Goodyear, daughter of and Mrs. Charles Goodyear of No. 6840 Greenwood avenue. The wedding was se affair, and not large, with the cerny at noon, and the decoration all in holiday greens, holly and poinsetta. An elaborate breakfast was served.

ite broadcloth, braided and trimmed ith a little white fox, which, as everybody knows, is the rarest and smartest for of and carried a large, round, old-fashione

BECAUSE

They have stood the TEST of over HALF A CENTURY have never been found lack-ing in any of the essentials that go to make up a

HIGH-GRADE PIANO.

RESULT:

To-day there are 80,000 owners of the beautiful old

EMERSON. Every one of whom will say it's the BEST MODERATE PRICE.

The EMERSON is one of our Leaders

1115 OLIVE ST.

MISS PEARL HYMAN A CABANNE BEAUTY WHO IS MUCH ADMIRED

bouquet of white violets in a silver holder that belonged to her great-grandmother. Air. and Mrs. Hodges are traveling in the West, going as far as California. They will live with Mr. and Mrs. Greenwood on their return, receiving on the second and fourth Tuesdays in March. Mr. Hodges once lived here.

O'clock at the Church of St. Malachy, the Reverend Father Ziegler officiating. The bride is a daughter of John O'Connell and lived in St. Louis formerly. Miss Maul Clausses of Philadelphia was bridesmaid and William Woods of Louis presented their president, Mrs. C. H. Eggleston, with a Cut-glass berry bowl and one dozen water short honeymoon trip Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Eggleston, with a Cut-glass berry bowl and one dozen water globals. The following members of the club were Mr. Hodges once lived here.

Speaking of wedding breakfasts, I have not in some time heard of a more elabo-rate or toothsome repast than that served the other morning at the Wise-McMen amy wedding. There were sixteen guests and they ate, first, fresh strawberries, served with the hulls; then oyster cutlets, which, if you don't know, are large oysters rolled with a paste and made into the shape of cutlets and covered with a cream sauce; next, brolled pompano, maitre d'ho tel, with cucumbers and Parisienne potatoes, olives, celery and radishes; then sucacy that the sixteen guests declared to be worthy of its superlative. The breasts of spring chickens only are used, rolled with truffies and covered with the supreme sauce, which can't be described for its with the chicken. Then came French lamb chops, served with green peas, brolled quall with watercress, asparagus tips served hot, followed by marron glace, cake and coffee, the latter served all during the meal. This breakfast consumed two hours in serving The table was exceedingly pretty, decorated entirely in red, with meteor roses or the center-piece, the two initials of bride and bridegroom intertwined.

the twentieth, was the guest of honor at a lacheon given last week by Miss Nan Sleven, of the South Side. The bride-elect sat under a canopy of smilax and holly, and cut a miniature wedding cake, which contained a ring and a thimble spinsterhood. Miss Sleven covly neglects o inform me who got the ring. So we draw our own conclusions.

to show that signs sometimes fall. Miss Coale-Kinealy bridal party last night, and Mrs. Eugene Fusz will give an afternoon party for forty girls on Thursday. Other unctions for the bride will be given by Miss Alice Taylor and Miss Violet Actually, the nerve of some persons in this world is beyond belief.

I grow almost apoplectic with wrath evcame under my observation one day redesk in a large business house waiting to e served. The cashier, a hard-working, faithful little soul, was temporarily abin the rear of the house. I could see her desks and I knew it would not be many

Up bustled a large, important-looking man. He eyed the deserted "cage" with ment?" he inquired, in tones of lordly disdain. "Why isn't she doing business at this hour of the day?"

Now, I know the little cashier, and I like her. From the man's air I felt sure that he had come to pay the firm a thousand-dollar bill. Nothing less could give him that haughty look and those scorn-

I grew apologetic-profusely so. "The cashler will be here in a minute, I'm quite sure, if you will kindly wait. She is in ffice. Oh, I'm positive she will return in a very short time," said I feeling myself turn pale with apprehension lest the important-looking man report my little friend to the head of the firm for inntiention to business, and also lest he go away and refuse to buy any more goods from the house.

The cashier did indeed return in just about twelve seconds. The important-looking man pushed two boys away, elbowed a clerk aside and reached the desk first. He laid a coin on the desk.

what he said. SERENA LAMB.

The marriage of Miss Julia M. O'Co pell of Alton to J. N. Weyers of St. Louis took place last Thursday afternoon at 5 The Enterprise Euchre Club met at the

The marriage of Miss Clara Stegall and Charles Capen will take Alace very quiet-ly on Saturday of this 4.85%, January 16.

Mrs. Bertha Vogel and cos the en-Charles Ackerman of this city. At home January 17, afternoon and evening.

SOCIAL CLUBS. Fine Watches-Mermod & Jaccard's. The members of the What Club were entertained Sunday evening, January 3. by Miss Rose Reynolds of No. 3216 Bell by Miss Rose Reynolds of No. 3216 Bell avenue. The evening was spent in dancing and games, after which supper was served. Those present were:

Walter Grupe,
George Ross,
Al Murphy,
Al Reader,
Joe Burns,
Joe Burns,
Joe Her: Byrne,
John Hawkins,
Missee. Josie Byrne,
Mary Crane,
Nacy Hite,
Annette Byrne,
Rose Reynolds, Agnes Byrne, Elsie Hite, Elizabeth Reader, Lil Goodenough.

The J. B. C. Bowling Club held its reg dar weekly meeting last Tuesday evening on the Pendleton alleys. Miss Adelaide Strathman and Mr. George J. Welsh made the highest scores of the evening. Among those present were:

Lina Schmitz, Josephine Wondra-chek, Mary McLaughlin, Bessie McLaughlin, Marie Bowles, Mary Miller, Louise Bakersmith, Adelaide Strath-Tilden F. Greer, Chas. J. Quade, John Breen, Joseph Klasek,

A unique club was formed just as the year of 1905 passed away. It was christ-ened the Z. A. Club, and meets only on last and first letters of the alphabet.
After drinking a toast to the long existence of the club there was a repast served.
The members are: Messrs. Edward Kerwin, president; O. Kuster, vice president;
Charles Weiblen, Harry Weil and John Vogel.

One of the social functions of the holidays was a reception given New Year's Eve at the home of the Misses Schottmueller of No. 224 South Jefferson avenue, in honor of the B. H. M. Club, of which they are members. The home was decorated in smilax, with holly and mistletee. The evening was spent in music and games, after which an elaborate supper was served. The guests departed at an early hour, each carrying home a souvenir of the occasion.

Those present were: Those present were:

Helen Kuiser, Helen Kuiser, Carrie Schaefer, Emma M. Schott-mueller, Mae B. Schott-mueller, mueller, Anna Kaiser, Clara H. Rhode. Messrs. — Crarles Rump. Carl G. McConnell, Herman Rhode, Lee Stoble, Walter League, Ewall Vick, Festus C. Griffith.

The O. B. J. Club was entertained Tues day afternoon by Mrs. Fletcher and Mrs. Johnson, No. 3847 Russell avenue. The prizes were won by Mrs. Kellerman, Mrs. James Bennett, Mrs. Sayers and Mrs.

The Musical Lyceum of Willing Workers and their friends met Tuesday evening January 5, in regular monthly meeting with Mr. and Mrs. John R. Hammond, a No. 223 Montgomery street. It was the fourth anniversary of the organization, and some of the charter members were present. A fine, spirited programme was given.

Mrs. Hammond was assisted in receiving by the Misses Mamie and Augusta Astroth. Those present were:

Misses—

Misses—
Grayce Pritchard,
Marie Crahen,
Anna Weedman,
Viola Loehr,
Mae Weedman,
Lida Gruber,
Messieurs—
Miss Carricon.
Miss Carricon.

Messieurs—
Edward Price,
J. E. Taylor,
Will Koelling,
H. C. Armstrong,
Claud Watson. W. Young.
Messeurs and Mesdames—
William McAdoo, Frank Millhuff.
Mrs. Lucy Grimes.

The Commercial Club of St. Paul has honored Howard Elliott, president of the Northern Pacific Railroad, with a reception, given last Friday night, in their clubhouse.

Eggleston, Hurk, Farewell, Finnegan, Friend, Grovaman, Kraft, Lindner, McGumn, Proudfit, Rubleman, Start, Stover, Finnegan, Jr., Sievers.

The Juanita Bowling Club held its regular meeting on Monday evening. The games were highly exciting. After the games were bowled, a repast was served. The members are:

Cornella Van Dike, Ethel Lonergan, Hazel Reineke, Mrs. Greisback. Oscar Berghaus, Fred Moehlman, Norman Lonergan, Greisback.

The "eLap Year Girls" gave a party at the home of Miss Mabel Bradley on Rutger street. Vocal and instrumental music was rendered, and games of all kinds were enjoyed till a late hour. Supper was served at 1 a. m. Among those prosent

Lillian Obert. Bessie Raphael, Myra Crawford, Mabell Bradley. Walter McGanley, Arthur Spellman, Leslie McHenry. Clark, Roy Slack, Guy Biby, William Higley,

The Up-to-Date Tenpin Club held its regular meeting at the St. Louis Bowling Association alleys Tuesday afternoon with a very good atendance. There were some very good scores made. Mrs. F. W. Krenning had the high score for the renth just ended, Mrs. G. H. Strathmann second and Mrs. G. F. Steltz third.

The Girls of 1904 entertained their The Giris of 1998 entertained their friends with a Leap Year dance last Wednesday evening. The hall was decorated with holly and the World's Fair colors. Punch was served during the evening. The young ladies were chaperoned by Mrs. A. Mero and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Richelau of Detroit, Mich. Among the young ladies who were noticed as being handsomely gowned were Miss Evelyn Payette Mero, president of the club, olive green Aeolian over white and green taffeta silk; Miss Clara Freymark, secretary, black taffeta frock with jet trimmings; Miss Loille Foster, treasurer, tan with lace trimmings; Miss Edna Unwin, blue foulard silk with lace; Miss Lucille Marshall, white silk with lace and chiffon; Miss Mildred Marshall, champagne-colored albatross, trimmed in blue veivet and lace medallions; Miss Ella Haas, gray albatross over pink silk; Miss Lillie Campton, white organdie over pink taffeta; Miss Evelyn Fricke, blue crepe de Chine, trimmed in black velvet and lace; Miss Marie Raithell, musical director, white crepe. Those bresent were:

Wissman.

Hans,

Bromsehwig. friends with a Leap Year dance last

Rondhouse, Wilkins, deboenhard, luber, donighan, odgson, diligass, aithel, dekles, Brockma Richter. Brown, McHugh, eb, ampton, Edna Dixon, Eva Creegan, Louise Hilligass, Adelo Menze, Adele Menze, Sue Sickles, Lillie Cumpton, Cora Anderson, Eva Raithel, Amy Paschall, Clara Wiedmann, Kittle Gubernator, Bessie Squire, Cora Raithel, Josephine Guber-nator, Marie Raithei, Rose Schaepperle,
Amelia Lehnbeuter,
Mildred Marshall,
Madge Foster,
Dollie Fricke,
Amy Dougherty,
Lollie Foster,
Lucille Marshall,

nator, Evelyn Fricke. The Monday Evening Euchre

The Monday Evening Euchre and Bowling Club met at the Pendleton last Monday evening. After some very interesting games a supper was served. The members are:

Messleurs and Mesdames.
Paul Lenz.
Jere B. Moberly.
Jere B. Moberly.
Jere B. Moberly.
E. J. Adams,
Theodore Smith.
W. F. Martin,
Marin Faqua.
The club will be entertained next Monday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Smith of No. 658 McMillan avenue. Wedding gifts of the kind to insur lasting appreciation may be selected from the magnificent collection of solid silver-ware at Mermod & Jaccard's, Broadway and Locust.

entertained last week by Mrs. John J. Payton of No. 222 Howard street. The prizes were won by Mrs. J. Messing, Mrs. J. M. Moran, Mrs. B. Coghill and by Mr. John Bradshaw, Mr. J. McLean and Mr. B. Coghill. The club will be next entertained by Mrs. J. Messing of No. 2309 Caroline street.

The Leny Year Girls held their third cuchre of the season last Tuesday even ing. Prizes were won by the Misses Co-rinne Goctz, Kitty Hoizman and Estelle Deming. Miss Nellie Goetz entertained. Deming. Miss Ne The members are:

Misses— Kitty Holzman, Lizzie Vodde, Estelle Deming, Nelle Goetz, Anna Dumser,

A masquerade was given on New Year's Eve-by members of the Laeteri Cala-norium Club of Shrewsbury Park. Dan-ling and music were the features of the vening. At midnight a dainty remast was served. Mr. and Mrs. J. Albers The following members and friends were Messieurs-John Jacob, Frank Wehner, Otto Klefmann, W. H. Meler, John Poelker, Hy. Wessel, Alb. Mueller, Paul C. Wehner, Jos. Mueller, Leo R. Wehner, Con. Jacobs. Jos. I. Wehner.

arrie Mueller. inn Rocks. Stocky M. Webner ances Schmidt,

TEXEDO BOWLING PARTY. The Tuxedo Lowling Club gave its regthar bowling party hast Su at the Riverside alley. Those present

Alice Jansen, Julia Byron, Margaret Jackel, Augusta Scharf, Rose Dienlin, Effle Dobler, lessieurs-Charles Seiler, John Woeger, Alfred Miller, Alex. Strausenbach, Hugo Simon, John Schleble, Alfred Miller, Robert Schenk. William Schenk. Lawrence Simon Charles Dobler, Joseph Roth.

The Poster Girls announce their intention of entertaining on Tuesday evening, Jannuary 22, at No. 1412 North Grand avenue. The number of invitations will be limited and only issued to most inti-

The A. M. B. Club entertained in honor of Messrs. Tom Dalton and Joe McMahor of Messrs. Tom Dalten and Joe alcalada.

New Year's Eve at the home of Miss Anna Amann, one of the club's members. Vocal solos were rendered by Messra Dalton and M. McCarthy. Recitations were given by Messrs. Tom Dalton and Joe McMahon. The house was tastefully decorated.

orated. The guests were: L. Ebeling, A. Lord, A. G. Amann, M. M. Amann, W.M. Long, E. M. Long, C. Lochlein, A. G. Murphy, A. T. Dalton. Tom Dalton, Arnold, C. Wright, M. McCarthy, Edwards. J. Graham, P. A. Dalton, T. Riley. J. Meagher,

Miss Eva Bohannan of No. 4292 Cook avenue entertained her club Tuesday evening with a profile-drawing party. Miss Katle A. Davis and Joseph L. Shields were awarded the first prizes, while the consolation prizes were won by Miss Grace Kromwell and W. M. P. Nolan.

The 1904 Club was entertained Thursday evening by Miss Estella Dunn of North St. Louis. The evening was spent in games, dancing and singing, after which a repast was served. Among those present were: Misses-Nellie Fogarty, Mary O'Keefe, Bertha Stern, Martha Stern, Dora Troube, Annie Frimchriber, Marie Cashill, Estella Dunn. Messieurs— Leo Curran, Erin Frimchriber, John Meyer, Erin Troube, Myra Stern, Arthur Dunn, Mike Fogarty, Francis Dunn.

The Rainwater Rifles entertained large number of their friends at their third dance of the season at the Masonic Temple Tuesday evening, January 5. Among the guests were:

Messieurs and Mesdames—
Adolphe L. Boyce, A. B. Donnelly, C. A. Sinelair, Elisha Morgan.

Sue M. Jenkins, Maude Fulton, Mary E. Marshall, Helen Carroll, Hester Geisel, Marle Quinn, Carrie Schnell-bachers, Virginia Lewis, Molly Peters, Mamie Pepkin, Emily Lewin, Misses— Lulu Willis Arm-Lulu Willis Arm-strong, Norine Townley, Grace Campbell, Nelle Alexander, Maude Lytle, Marie Farrell, Mabel Ahearn, Page Cabill. Mabel Ahearn, Bess Cahill,
Isubel Maginnis,
Elma Fissinger,
Nell Kerr,
Elsie Duncan,
Julia V. Dickeon,
Lille Matt,
Mercenia Losse,
Charlotte Matt,
Messieurs— Mamle Pepkin, Emily Irwin, Marie Kyle. Pauline Jones, Alice Jones, Avery Ferguson.

dessieurs—
J. P. Lindsay,
Jas. J. Keane,
Jas. J. Keane,
George Horstman,
Albert H. Bintliff,
H. A. Johann,
J. W. Cockrill,
V. D. Gerry,
Wm. Penny,

Geo. B. Scott,
Hubbard Douglas,
George Brodle,
Otey M. James,
Eugene P. Dubois
Geo. C. Stephens,
W. R. Shaw,
C. F. Westcoat,
Charles J. Matt,
J. R. Durban,
W. G. Sluder, Jr.;
Ernest Alexander.

The I. C. T.'s, consisting of Alois C. Bourscheldt, Thomas B. McArdle, Jules P. Wendel, Hugh V. Bowers, Harry P. Johns and Louis H. Claes, called on their friends New Year's Day, after which they went to the home of Jules Wendel, where an elaborate dinner was served, everything being decorated in the club colors, orange and white.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

Fine Silk Umbrellas-Mermod & Jac

The Jefferson Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, was entertained last Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. W. G. Chappell and Mrs. Horace Rumsey at the Chappell residence, No. 3810 Westminstel place. A large number of ladies was in attendance. Mrs. Ray Douglas and Mrs Herbert Moriss sang and Miss Wilmoth Herbert Moriss sang and Miss Wilmoth Evans gave a reading that was enjoyed. Doctor Anita Newcomb McGee of Washington was the guest of honor. Besides being vice president of the anthropological section of the American Society for the Advancement of Science, Doctor McGee is historian general of the Daughters of the American Revolution. She was introduced to the company by Mrs. Chappell, and made a pleasant talk descriptive of the workings of the National Board at Washington, and the difficulties and compensations in the life of a national officer.

Barwick, S. L. Gettys, Furbinger, Moody, Hinnan Clark, desdames—

Frank Crunden,
Wallace Delafield,
Doctor Anita
Newcomb,
McGee,
John Ralston,
T. D. Porcher,
George C. Carrie,
Herbert Morris,
Barwick,
Ray Douglas,
A. E. Chappell,
Misses— Clark, Jr., Jesse M. Battle, S. M. Green, M. H. Taylor, lisses— Mamie Teasdale, Helen Teasdale, Dalton, Wilmoth Evans, Smith, Bertha Carrington, Anna Force, Mitchell, Taylor,

The most expert engravers in America are ready to execute your orders for Wedding Invitations, Calling Cards, An-nouncements, etc., at Mermod & Jac-card's, Broadway and Locust. Correct forms, latest styles and most reasonable prices.

Chart Club Drawing Rooms will be held Tuesday, January 12, at 11 a. m., by Mrs. Theodore Shelton, No. 4467 Lindell avenue, The same afternoon (2 o'clock) by Mrs. Maria I. Johnston at Washington Hotel. Wednesday, January 13, 11 a. m., by Mrs. Er est Edwards at Hamilton Hotel. The same afternoon (2 o'clock) by Mrs. Laura M. Pi-kett. No. 4012 Olive street. French divisions us usual.

The last meeting of the Ten O'Clock funicale was held at the home of Mrs. lessuel Williams, No. 416 West Bella Eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Traunmiller. No. 4333 West Pine boulevard, has just returned from Milwaukee, where she hus been visiting her grandparents, and being much entertained. Miss Traunmiller, who is not yet out in society, is a sparkling brunette, much resembling her mother.

place, where a very interesting pro-gramme was given, as follows: ary 14. gramme was given, as follows: (a) A Cradle Song... (b) The Rose and the Maiden... Mrs. W. H. Watson. Plane-Elsenreigen Miss Rogers.

Recitation Selecter

Song Two Lily Songs.

Henshaw Dana

Mrs. Bernard.

Piano—Air de Bailet.

Mrs. Harris. Song—
(a) Absent
(b) St mes Vres
Mrs. Frohman. (a) Amorosa (b) Gongoliera Miss Pfeiffer.

(a) Amorosa (b) Gengoliera Nevin (b) Gengoliera Nevin (b) Gengoliera Nevin (c) Gengoliera Nev avenue walked serenely into the mysteries of the club amid the soft lights of eighten or twenty goiden stars. The hours from 3 to 4 were spent socially in honor of a guest, second vice president of the Supreme Grand Chapter of the P. E. O's, Mrs. Mira Andrews of Washington, D. C., give a short talk full of good thoughts for P. E. O. Day during the World's Fair.

The last meeting of the Twentieth Cenand the election of officers. With this meeting the club closed its third and most successful year, with a full membership and a waiting list.

Mrs. W. O. Bickley, to whose zeal the club attributes much of its success, was re-elected president. Other officers are Mrs. Frank P. Hayes, president; Mrs. C. W. Galligan, recording secretary; Miss May B. Luney, corresponding secretary; Mrs. W. R. McFarlane, treasurer. The directors are Mmes. J. A. Gilliam. Helen Forbes Johnson. A. E. Reton. Walter L. Culver and James Rogers.

"The Art Ramblers in Italy, Germany and France During the Past Year" will be continued this year at home, and "The World's Fair From an Artistic and Educational Standpoint" will be the study of the club. The next meeting will be held at the residence of Mrs. Frank P. Hayes, No. 428 West Pine boulevard, on Monday, January II, at 10 a. m.

The Tuesday Club had an afternoon with Stevenson last week. The author was treated as a novelist and essayist. Discussing the real Stevenson, some interesting goosilp was brought out from meeting the club closed its third and was treated as a novelist and essayist. Discussing the real Stevenson, some interesting gossip was brought out from those who had met him in London. The leader of the afternoon was Mrs. McParlane. She was assisted by Miss Fisher. Mrs. Cobb. Mrs. Dobyne, Miss Hills and Mrs. Van Arsdale.

Thackeray's "Pendennis" will form the subject once more for the sixth meeting of the Greek Ethics Club this season, next Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock It will be the final treatment of this great novel before the club passes on for the seventh meeting to a consideration of Thackeray's "Vanity Fair."

Members of the Clotto Club celebrates the New Year by a theater party instead of a regular meeting on Saturday. The "Morning Etude" met with Miss Winkle, at No. 5606 Bartmer place, Friday morning. The following programme was given:

Piano Duo
Miss Winkle and Mrs. Keller
Vocal Solo-For All Eternity Mascherin
We Meet Agin. Liebe
We Meet Agin. Liebe
Piano Solo-Gondola. Bendel
Vocal Solo-Dream One Dream of Me. Robyn
Mrs. Rudolph.
Piano Solo-Serenade. Kroeger
Miss Wingle.

Solo-Tannhauser. Wagner-Lieu

Plano Solo—Tannhauser Was
Mrs. Roy J. Denny.
Vocal Solo—(a) Prayer, From Mignon.
(b) Habeneta, Carmen.
Plano Solo—Egeria.
Miss Jeffrey.

The Literary Symposium discussed art elass Thursday morning at Hotel Beers Mrs. Griffith began with antique colored glass for use and ornament before glass glass for use and ornament before glass was used to transmit light. She then noticed the more modern art of painting on glass. Old mosaic windows and the masterpieces of Gothic cathedrals were described. She spoke of the promised display of glass at the World's Fair in pointing out the beauty of venetian, clear, engraved and cut glass of England. Art glass in St. Lbuis was discussed in a table talk, led by Mrs. Finis Marshall, W. B. Anderson, Q. G. Baker and others.

History in statues, a World's Fair talk.

The Wednesday Club during the past week shared with the St. Louis Society of Pedagogy the pleasure of having William Butler Yeats appear before it. As an important literary event in this year's life history of the club, the day must stand prominent, as it surely will also in the minds of the surerisingly large part of St. Louis's cultured public that heard Mr. Yeats's talks.

AT THE THEATERS.

Friday night's audience at the Olympic was decidedly the largest of Viola Allen's

Miss Stella Wade and her guest, Miss Storm, came with Newman Samuels and Albert Collins.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Walker had Miss Lily Lambert and her escort with them, giving a petit souper afterwards.

Miss Adele Armstrong came with Carl Meyer, and George Hoyle brought a pretty girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Douglas had friends with them at the play and afterwards for supper.

friends with them at the play and after-wards for supper. Mr. and Mr. and Mr. and Mrs. Phil Wilson were together.
M. B. Miltenberger came elone, sitting in the circle near Mrs. P. Short and sev-eral friends.
Mr. and Mrs. Walker Etans, Mrs. Rob-inson and P. J. Donovan were neighbors in the parquet.
De Mrn. Walsh brought Miss Lella. Chopin.
Doctor and Mrs. Robert Funkhouser were in the central parquet.

MISCELLANEOUS EVENTS.

Diamond Necklaces-Mermod & Jac-Six young men gave a stag balcony party last Sunday evening at the Olympic, Those present were: Messleurs—

Michael Hasen. Frank Lossos Joe Wisman. C. Heckemeier

Mrs. J. Peet entertained on Monday afternoon, it being the occasion of her birthday. The following ladies were present: Mrs. J. T. Dwyer, Mrs. Edwards, Mrs. Sheridan, Mrs. C. Walsh, Mrs. Updike and Mrs. Quins.

Joseph Pausback entertained at his home New Year's Eve in honor of his twenty-first birthday. Part of the evening was spent in games. The first prizes were awarded to Cor. Schmetz and Miss Gussie Hibbeler, while Lon Reich an Miss Anna Loesch received the booby prizes. Plano solos and songs were rendered by Jul. Zimmerli and Alvin Acton, planists and singers from the South Side. A light repast was served. The house was decorated in mistletoe and holly.

A New Year's reception was given by mann, Johanna Kaub and Frieda Brueckmann at the home of Miss Eergmann, No. 2319 South Eleventh street. The house was decorated, red being the predominating color. A large number of guests presented themselves between 7 and 10 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Grace celebrated the silver anniversary of their wedding on Saturday. A nuptial mass was celebrated by the Reverend Joseph Chap-oton of St. Alphonsus Rock Church, at 7 o'clock. The two sons of the couple served as acolytes, while Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Gill acted as witnesses. A reception to all their friends followed in

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Reinhelmer entertained friends on Wednesday evening. Music and dancing were very much en-joyed, also a midnight supper.

One of the events of the holidays was a euchre party given by Miss Clara Reckart of Clayton, Mo., January 2, in honor of her friend, Miss Rose Rino. Hands prizes were won by Miss Celia Kreike-meler, Miss Emma Autenrieth and Miss Rose Rino. The fortunate men were Al Beckmann, Paul Balleydier, Al Wengler. After the distribution of prizes a repast

Wedding Invitations

Absolutely correct form, latest style and highest character of engraving constitute the reasons why our wedding invitations are almost exclusively used in the best society circles.

Calling Cards

Engraved copper plate and 100 fine quality calling cards, $1.52. Repeat orders from same plate, 100 cards, $1.50.

Writing Papers

Two-tone Linen and Hemstitched are two of the newest. We have them in various tints and fashionable sizes. Initials, monograms, etc., designed and stamped at very reasonable prices.

Mermod & Jaccard's

Broadway and Locust